

M&T Bank makes donation to Garrett County Community Action Committee Inc.

Asset Development Department has impact on community

Submitted Photo

From the left are Jared L. Jones, assistant vice president and branch manager from M&T Bank; Brent Stone, weatherization program manager from the Garrett County Community Action Committee Inc.; Dora Shahan, vice president of administration for GCCAC; Brandon Hillegas, assistant vice president and relationship manager for M&T Bank; and Gregan Crawford, vice president of strategic initiatives for GCCAC. Absent is Cindy Lipscomb, home ownership and rehab administrator at GCCAC.

FOR THE CUMBERLAND TIMES-NEWS

OAKLAND — Garrett County Community Action Committee Inc. recently received a $1,000 donation from M&T Bank.

"I am very thankful for the generous donation, which will be utilized to help qualifying residents make needed repairs to their homes," said

Cindy Lipscomb, home ownership and rehab administrator for the Asset Development Department of GCCAC. "Having safe and secure housing helps to stabilize individuals, families, seniors, and communities."

Representing M&T Bank were Brandon Hillegas, assistant vice president and relationship manager, and Jared L. Jones, assistant vice president and branch manager. During the presentation, each noted that M&T Bank believes that banks exist to help people succeed, and when people succeed, communities can succeed.

In addition to helping people with home repairs and rehab, the Asset Development Department of GCCAC offers first-time home ownership classes, conducts the free Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program, provides weatherization and furnace repair services and budget and credit counseling opportunities. The organization is located at 104 E. Center St.

More information regarding programs and services offered by GCCAC can be found online at www.garrettcac.org or by calling 301-334-9431.