

Community Action adopts appointment-only schedule

OAKLAND — Garrett County Community Action Committee staff members are seeing participants on an appointment-only basis until further notice.

This action is taken out of an abundance of caution, and it follows the lead of other local agencies and government departments, according to a press release.

“Community Action remains open and committed to helping people and communities during this time of changing circumstances caused by the coronavirus,” the release stated.

Daily business hours for Garrett County Community Action have not changed. But anyone in need of services or anyone who has questions about services and programs must call ahead and schedule an appointment with the appropriate department before visiting the agency.

In Oakland, the agency can be reached Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. by phoning 301-334-9431.

In Grantsville, Community Action offices are open Monday and Thursday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The offices can be reached by phoning the Oakland offices at 301-334-9431 and asking for extension 6116.

“Community Action closely monitors and reviews the guidance it receives from federal, state and local agencies,” the release stated.
